decisive Republican victory in io is caused by the attempt of the Prohibition leaders to off enough Republican votes to insure the reelection of a Democratic Governor, who has gone through the canvass defaulty proclaiming himself unqualifiedly or posed to Prohibition and opposed even to sub-mitting the question to the people.

Nustranger anomaly was ever exhibited in American politics than the course pursued by men who assume to be champions of temperance and yes labor to defeat the only party that has ever favored, and to secure the victory of the party that openly declares itself the enemy of temperaice reform. While Governor Hoadly has been going up and down the State de-claring against Prohibition and dehouncing the Scott law that taxed the liquor sellers for the support of the criminals and paupers made by their ruinous traffic, Dr. Leonard, ex-Gov. St. John and others have been using the name of temperance to per-suade men to so yote as to aid Hoadly's election. Of course the great majority of the sincere friends of temperance in Ohio are too intelligent to be thus deceived, and the men who are leading the third party movement do not expect to carry with them more than a small fraction of those voteis. The doubt as to just how many thousands that fraction will include forms, the uncertain element in the Ohio election. The Republican leaders and newspapers believe that the defection will not be large enough to prevent Judge Fornker's clection by a decided plu ality, and they express even more confidence in the election of a Republican Legislature to choose Senator Sperman as his own successor.

varieties of election traud known to Demo-cratic repeaters, and spatiers, encouraged by the President's pandon of Policeman Mullen furnishes the basis of Democratic hopes for success.

We think the people outside of that State have failed to real ze the desperate, character of the warfare hat the Republicans of Ohio have been called upon to; ahall be settled finally and forever in a few neet, with the State and National Administrations commined against them in addition to the unboly alliance between Leonard and the liquo-dealers. Under these circumstances there cannot fail to be great anxiety as to the result, but we have very strong hopes of a substantial Repubn victory. Anything beyond ti at will

Fully 100,000 People sion took place. When everything was in readiness for the final blast, Mary Newton, the eleven-year-old daughter of General Newton, touched the button that set fire the electric current that exploied the submarine mines and shattered the niountain of rock, Hiding it out of the bosom of the sea and crushing it into a million of fragments. The shock of the collapse was felt only slightly on the Astoria shore and the noise resembled far distant subtervianean thunder. A trein color and outline. A solid wall of white streaked with dull green 500 or 600 feet in length and fully 100 feet high, seemed it is straight up from the bed of the river. The top of the mass, was irregular with sharp peaks and jets of spray shooting up as high again into the dir. From the heights on New York shore the topmost spray obscured the electric light tower of Hallet's Point completely so that in all probability the water was thrown 200 feet or high. A currious feature of the pleure white and green water topped age or set of spray. Persons but the lumber dock at the foot of 33d street had an admirable view of the explosion. The first indication that they had of its actual spectacle lasted but a few minutes. It was Predicted that the broken rock would make an even more dangerous reef than before at least to appearances until removed by grappling, and the appearance of the rock after the explosion iscened to verify the prediction. Gen. Newton, however, expressed satisfaction with the explosion as apparently successful. The work of removing the rock to the deep hole north of Blackwell's Island, where there is room for it all, will be began at once.

Blackwell's Isbaul, where there is room for it all, will be begin at once.

The only accidents reported in connection with the explosion was the burning of Gen. Newton slightly on the neck by a piece of time attached to a photograph eamera of the engineerant whom Gen. Newton was chief. This attendon stug bost with a few persons on board, craised about in the vicinity of the pilese, but no soupds were taken. The work of surveying the best of the river will be commanded next week, and it will not be knownightal after the survey is made just what me siect of the explosion has been. Among the new "confections" which the season produces are long Huguenot cloaks which fall from neck to hem without any dishery or aperture for the arms, out any dishery or aperture for the arms. The model is very full around the neck and but slightly on the shoulders. The hand is a duplicate of that worsh by those who have lobtained certain university degrees. With this wrap is sometimes worn the square academical cap or "mortar bourd," which is also the symbol of a centain distinction. The new fashion has arisen in order to copy as nearly as possible the appearance of the Princess of Wales in the capitand gown she wore when the homorary degree of doctor of music was conferred upon her. A very excellent idea of both cap and gown was given it one of our leading illustrated American fashion journals recently above the fitte of "The Sweet Girl Graduate." out any despery or aperture for the arms.

A very simple way of diversifying the toilet with little expense compared with its gratifying results, is to have the bodice made with loose fronts, so that the vest may be constantly varied. A hady noted for her taste in dress had, this season, a gown made with a loose-fronted bodice. She has for this one dress, black velvet, mauve sath, Coquelicot silk, aind striped black and white satin waistcoats severally to wear in change. This pleasing variety is effected it a very inconsiderable cost, as seven-eighths of a yard of any one of these materials will make a narrow vest, and one word and three-fourths will make a pleated waistcoat, with enough left from shaping the sides to form a narrow collar and cuff tri minings. made with loose fronts, so that the vest

Skirts to rich trained evening toilets for the coming gay season will show less of pleated triumings than have been in vogue for severa winters past. There will be some very, elogant panel-adortings in the shape of sik embreideries, pearl appliques and other costly bead garature but in very many cases, the trained skir, unde and other costly brad garnitate but in every many cases, the trained skir, unde of the very richest satin, velvet, ar silk, will be added to by no extra effects. The most striking or original feshirs of the toilet will be the arrangement of the bodiec and the shape and finish of the neck and sleeves. In this respect there will be a great diversity. Artistic and historic effects will be studied, and recourse made to the quaint portraits of the lifteenth cefticity, and the andels treasured of the Venetian. Roman, and Florentine schools, Puffed sledves, guimpes, fraises, Charles IX collars! Vandyke ruffs, and tief falling Smart frilly, will all appear in modified forms, one lavored neck arrangement being the flaring Marguerite de Valois collar, either of silk of lace, where to keep it in shape, and to encircle the low-cut square, o' leart-shaped bodice. A melange of the Watteau and the Greedin will also be a tavored arrangement and in decided contrast will appear many of the simple and quaint "early English" styles. Pale shound and delicate rose are two colors which are to be exceedingly fashionable it silks and satins for dameing toilets the coming senson: Different shades of these exquirire hugs are equally becoming to blonde or brunettel and their beauty will be enhanced by white silk menbroidenes and garnitures of a new lace whose designs circled really recomble the richtest patterns in real point but being executed by machine-work, under a new and infricate pricess, the lace codsts ess than infourth they vaine of the real.

The variety of outside garments this senson surpasses that of any other display for several years. No two models seem alike; and here again good taste is good style. and here again good taste is good style, in previous seasons fashion decreed a cerain stated length/for outside wraps. Thus far every style seems in vogue, from the matry, shart hunding-jacket to the long, luxurious French pelisse, with endless dressy visites and pelerines as happy incidiums.

Dyspepsia Dyspepsia.

Gents:—I feel it, my duty to say respecting Burdock Blood Bitters, that it is the best medicine I ever took. I suffered two or three years from someth tropbles and dyspepsia, as well as from liver and kidney complaint. I was not able to a tend to my business. My wife was afficted in much the same way. We read of your minds that we would fry them. The result is, my wife and I began to morove at one and I am now able to do, more hard work than before ireter years. It relieved my kidney troubles as well. We both wish you, the makers offit, Godspeed.
